Negro Tobacco Hands

Kill Montgomery Farmer
English S. Anderson, one of the most prominent farmers and land owners in Montgomery county, was murdered near his farm about 5 o'clock Monday. Two negro tenants, John P. Evans and his son Johnny, are accused of killing him.

The murder followed an altercation earlier in the afternoon caused by Anderson's remonstrance with the negroes against their smoking in his tobacco barn, where they were engaged in stripping.

His body with the skull crushed, was found at 6:30 o'clock in a dirt road near the tenant house occupied by the two negroes. Nearby was a damaged gun the instrument used in the killing.

The two negroes, who were arrested later by Sheriff Roberts, Deputy Jim Seabee, and Chief of Police J. C. Tipton confessed their guilt but their stories are incoherent. They were brought to Mt. Sterling and lodged in the county jail.

The body after being found by Henry Galtskill and Dave Galtskill. The skull was found crushed, the left arm broken and many bruises were found.

WEST VIRGINIA MINERS DON'T RETURN TO WORK

(By Associated Press)
Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 12.—Deputy sheriffs acting on a governor's warrant today seized nine rifles and 1,000 rounds of ammunition at the express office in Dawes, a mining village in the Cabin Creek district of the Kanawha coal fields. The miners did not obey orders of their leaders and return to work today. Only four of 200 mines in the district are operating.

Operators Agree To Meeting

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 12.—Chairman Brewster, of the coal operators' scale committee, today announced that the mine owners have accepted Secretary Wilson's invitation to meet representatives of the miners here Friday to negotiate a wage agreement.

Miners To Make Same Demands

(By Associated Press)
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 12.—Their original demands for a 60 per cent increase in wages, a six hour day, and a five-day week, will be presented to the operators by the mine workers in the joint scale conference called for Friday in Washington at the instance of Secretary of Labor Wilson, according to Frank Farrington, chairman of the miners' scale committee, who came here today en route to the national capital.

Asked whether the miners would obey the strike rescinding order, Farrington said "in my judgment they will not." He added, however, he spoke only for the Illinois district, of which he is President. He asserted the miners will insist that any new agreement be effective immediately and not next March as the operators formerly contended.

EXTENSIVE PLANS TO ENFORCE DRY LAWS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 12.—John W. Kramer, Attorney of Mansfield, Ohio, has been appointed Federal Prohibition Commissioner in direct charge of the enforcement of war time and constitutional prohibition. Kramer is a former member of the Ohio legislature. He will work under the bureau of internal revenue and have charge of the field force.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Roper today made public his plans for enforcement of prohibition. Kramer will have an executive field force of nine supervising federal prohibition agents and a prohibition director in each state. The supervising federal agents will have jurisdiction over nine territorial units into which the country has been divided. Virginia, North and South Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky and West Virginia are placed in what is known as the Southern unit. Roper asserted all state and county or city officers will be charged with full responsibility in enforcing the law. The federal agents will co-operate with them.

Combs May Enforce Dry Laws

It is understood at Lexington, after a conference between United States Senator A. O. Stanley and former State Senator Thomas A. Combs, that Senator Stanley will not oppose the appointment of Combs' brother, James H. Combs, as prohibition enforcement officer for Kentucky.

James H. Combs has been tipped for several days for the State dry enforcement law's chief officer. It is understood that Jettett Shouse, a former Lexingtonian and now Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, has been given the authority to name the new official. It was a first hint that Stanley and Beckham might stand on their prerogative to name a selection for the place and, while it is said Stanley will not object to Combs, Beckham's attitude is unknown here as far. James H. Combs is in Florida now.

Galvani Here Friday

Galvani, the noted hypnotist, who is probably known to as many if not more theatre goers than any other performer now before the public, has been engaged to fill an engagement at the Grand Opera House commencing Friday, November 14th. On Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, he will place a man in dreamland in the display window at Muncy Bros. Furniture Store to sleep until awakened Friday evening on the stage at the Opera House.

It will be remembered that Galvani is the man who gained much notoriety in this section, when he hypnotized Wm. M. O. Dawson who was at that time Governor of West Virginia.

Galvani has been before the public for 23 years, and is considered a wonder. He has directed that ladies be admitted absolutely free Friday night.

8th District A Bright Spot
Exactly three months after electing King Swope, Republican, to Congress, the Eighth district swung back into the Democratic column with a majority of nearly 600 for Gov. Black, despite the Republican landslide in the rest of the State. This is regarded as a fine showing under the circumstances and to assure the election to Congress of a Democratic Congressman next year, meanwhile several aspirants are being groomed for the nomination, says the Louisville Times.

Among those spoken of in connection with the Eighth district congressional nomination, Lieut. Col. Frank L. Rippey, of Lawrenceburg, is regarded as the most likely starter on the Democratic side. While in Louisville the other day he stated that he was carefully considering the matter, and had been assured of strong support in the event he made the race. He had intended becoming a candidate for the vacant seat but was not discharged from the military service in time. As a soldier candidate, Col. Rippey would have the advantage of Capt. Swope, as besides his service on the Mexican border, he was on the fighting lines in France.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER IN SENATE DEAD

(By Associated Press)
Charlottesville, Virginia, Nov. 12.—Senator Thomas C. Martin, Democratic leader in the Senate, died here today, after an extended illness. He was 72.

Thomas Staples Martin, United States Senator from Virginia, until his election in 1894 had been a railroad attorney from a small town, who had never sought a public office. When it was found that the State legislature had chosen him in preference to one of Virginia's most popular and able citizens, the Major General Fitzhugh Lee, there was a storm of protest among the Democrats of the "Old Dominion."

Martin braved the opposition, however, and on March 4, 1895 took his seat. His ability was soon discovered and from the date of his advent into national politics he served continuously in the Senate, rising to the leadership of his party and chairmanship of the important Appropriations Committee. He served in that capacity during the war Congress, where he was regarded as one of the leading figures in the Senate.

Senator Martin's father, John Samuel Martin, and his mother, Martha Ann Staples, were descendants of the early settlers of the Colony of Virginia. His father was a merchant and manufacturer of Scottsville, Albemarle county, Va., where on July 29, 1847, young Martin was born.

After a primary education in the Scottsville school, Martin entered the Virginia Military Institute in March, 1864. When the cadet battalion of the Institute was mustered into the Confederate Army for the battle of New Market, Cadet Martin was ill in a hospital and missed the encounter, but upon his recovery he rejoined his battalion and served until the end of the war.

In October, 1865, he entered the academic school of the University of Virginia, but after two years he was forced to leave college by the death of his father and assume the responsibilities of a large family.

His interest in politics was aroused by his association with John S. Barbour, chairman of the State general committee of the Democratic party, who made him a member of the committee. At that time the Democratic party was threatened with disruption over the question of the State debt to the Federal government, and a "Readjuster Faction," headed by General Mahone and including negroes, sprang up. Senator Martin came into the political limelight of the state by meeting the challenge of the new organization, and under his leadership it was overthrown and the Democratic party predominated.

In 1893 he was persuaded by his associates to enter the senatorial race and after a bitter fight, was elected by the Assembly over General Lee. For re-election in 1901 Senator Martin defeated Governor T. Hoge Tyler, another strong opponent. In 1904 the Democratic organization adopted the "primary plan" for election of governor and senators. This developed an eloquent and popular opponent in Governor A. J. Montague and even Senator Martin's friends were doubtful of the outcome as his ability as a debater and public speaker were unknown. Senator Martin "stumped" the state and achieved his third victory.

On October 10, 1894, he married Lucy Chambliss Day, daughter of Colonel C. Fenton Day, of Smithfield, Va. Two children were born to them.

OLDAM URGED FOR CONGRESS IN 7TH

A Frankfort correspondent says that if Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill, of Georgetown makes the race for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator next year, Mat Cohen, Commissioner of Agriculture, will make the race for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the seventh district. Reports have also been heard that in the event Cantrill tries for the senate, that Col. Ronald C. Oldham, of Winchester, might try for the congressional nomination. Col. Oldham made a close finish in the race for lieutenant governor and is already well known over the seventh district. It is understood that many friends are urging him to let it known over the seventh district above mentioned, that he would be a candidate.

State Board Of Health Warns Against Certain Olive Brands

The State Board of Health as a precautionary measure to prevent poisoning from eating olives, has instructed its inspectors to collect all samples of stock packed by a certain California corporation in response to a telegram from Chief Frost, of the United States Food and Drug Laboratory at Cincinnati. The telegram follows:

"Withhold from sale all brands of ripe olives packed by the Curtis Corporation, Long Beach, Cal. Advice this office of all stocks within the State either by wire or telephone so that samples may be collected for microbiological and other examinations, this being done in view of poisoning cases at Detroit, Mich.; Kenton, O., and additional poisoning cases in other parts of the state of Ohio."

Another Big Bonus For The Boys Who Fought

There is a bill pending in Congress to give the discharged soldiers and sailors, a bonus of one year's pay at the rate of $30.00 per month, and most of the members of Congress have pledged their support of this bill, and no doubt this bill will pass. This would make the minimum to one year service men $360.00; and to less than one year service men, $30.00 per month served.

There has been some misunderstanding about the five cents additional travel pay announced in the Press sometime ago. This five cents additional travel pay applies to all soldiers discharged since November 11th, 1918, and if you will bring your discharge papers to the Home Service Section, Red Cross, W. D. Oldham Building, Office of Stone W. Norman, and make application for the additional travel pay, you will get this money just in a few days. Stone W. Norman, Secretary Home Service Section, American Red Cross.

PARIS ON JOLLY TRIP

The State Normal Football Team was defeated by the Paris High School Team Friday by a score of 40 to 0, on the latter's grounds. Coach McCoy, with his squad of Normal High School boys left for Paris Friday afternoon on the 1:40 train. After reaching Paris, they were escorted to the Y. M. C. A. where they hurriedly dressed, and were rushed out to the field of action.

The Captains meet. A coin is tossed. Paris receives Richmond's kick. Burnam center on the Normal team, kicks the ball on the signal of the referee, and the two teams rush together. When the smoke is cleared away from the first skirmish, a Paris man is on the ball. With the ball in possession of the Paris team, their excellent team work proves to be a great advantage. The Normal boys are unable to organize their defensive after the shifts of their opponents in time to block their plays, so in four downs Paris scores. This they do for three consecutive times during the first period.

The second period the Paris team again makes three touch-downs, but on two occasions they fail to kick the goal, so the score stands 40 to 0 at the end of the first half.

The beginning of the second half, finds Normal receiving the kick of Baldwin, center on the Paris team. Workman, of the Normal team catches the ball, and is off for a touchdown, but his interference is not sufficient. He is overcome, he falls on the ball on the ten yard line. The ball now goes back and forth up and down the field, and at the end of the third period the ball is in about three yards of Normal's goal.

In the meantime Carson and Harrod with their war-whoops and yells succeed in keeping up the enthusiasm of the Normal team. The line men, Covington, Dunaway, Woodman and Harrod, make a desperate attempt to hold their opponents off while the backfield men, Gregory, Carson, and Moore make successful gains, but unfortunately they never succeed in making the goal.

The Normal boys left like sports, making the Paris boys believe that they thought that it was a greater victory to hold them in the last half than it was for the Paris boys to win the game in the first half.

The team was escorted to the Y. M. C. A. where they enjoyed a nice, refreshing swim in the fresh water pool in the basement of that fine building. They then dressed and enjoyed a fine supper and played games until 8 o'clock. They then attended a reception given by the Sophomore class of the Paris High School, in their honor. At 10:30 p. m. the boys met and after giving 15 yells for the Sophomore class and 15 for the football team, they departed for the station to catch the train for Richmond. On the way to the station the boys sang a parody, "How are you going to keep us down in Old Eastern when we've once seen Paris!"

The boys had a big time coming from Paris, and complimented highly the Paris Y. M. C. A. Many of the boys expressed their wishes for a Y. M. C. A. at Richmond. It is thought that within the next year a great drive will be put on for the purpose of erecting a Y. M. C. A. here.

The lineup in the games were as follows:

Normal	Paris
Crutcher	L. E. Jacoby
Workman	L. T. Taul
Arnold	L. G. Adair
Burnam	C. Baldwin
Dunaway	R. G. Shively
Harrod	R. T. Armbringer
Covington	R. E. Rice
Blanton	Q. B. Roberts
Moore	L. H. Tucker
Carson (Capt.)	R. H. McLinton
Gregory	F. B. Fenton

The substitutes for the Normal team were Procter, Todd and Woodman.

Get the Habit

Brer Rabbit

THERE'S something about fried hominy dripping with BRER RABBIT syrup which just makes you forget your manners and pound the table with knife and fork, especially if you're still pretty young and crave sweets.

You can't get away from this fact: You eat syrup because you like it—not merely because it's sweet, but because it's delicious and gives a tantalizing zest to pancakes, muffins, biscuits.

The same with children. They eat lots of sliced bread when there's syrup on it—the flavor is the reason.

BRER RABBIT is a delightful "sweet," but it's the country made ribbon-cane flavor of BRER RABBIT which makes the children noisy.

Give them lots of BRER RABBIT; it's absolutely pure and the most wholesome nourishing food you can buy.

What Might Happen

Democratic State officials whose appointments require confirmation by the Senate, are leaning on the hope that in the event Gov. Morrow declines to send their names to the upper branch at the coming session, as it is stated he will, the Democratic majority in the Senate will refuse to confirm the appointments of any successors that may be transmitted by the new Governor, which would have the effect of allowing the Democratic officials to serve out their terms, it is said. This promises to furnish an interesting situation.—Louisville Times.

HIGHER HONOR FOR SERGEANT YORK

Washington, D. C. Nov. 12.—Down in the fourth district of Tennessee there lives a man credited with the most outstanding individual achievement of any American in the World War. His name, already known to the majority of people in the United States, is Alvin C. York, and until recently he was sergeant of Company G, 328th Infantry, 82nd Division of the American Expeditionary Forces. A bill has been introduced by the Congressman from the District in which Sergt. York now resides, Cordell Hull, to honor the soldier's heroic exploits by commissioning him a second lieutenant and then placing him on the retired list with pay and allowances of a retired second lieutenant. York virtually alone wiped out a German gun battalion, killed 25 of the enemy and captured 135 prisoners.

The military affairs committee of the House of Representatives is expected to report Congressman Hull's bill favorably, and similar action by the Senate is confidently predicted.

York, it will be remembered, was second elder of the Church of Christ and Christian Union in the section where he lived, near Wolf river, about five miles from the Kentucky border. Although deeply religious he declined to claim exemption as a conscientious objector, and, being convinced that his duty to country was justified by Biblical writings, he promptly devoted his attention to his military duties, rose from the ranks to be corporal, and then to a sergeantcy after his exploit.

On his return to the United States York was tendered a reception not received by any American soldier other than General Pershing, but he returned to his mountain home where his mother and three small brothers and sisters awaited him. All attempts to inveigle him into the moving pictures, vaudeville or business failed or he expressed it:

"I was offered many different kinds of positions, and tonight I could have $500,000 in the bank if I'd accepted those offers, but I read in a little book I carried on the battlefields of France something that I remembered. It said: 'What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?'"

So, with all these things in mind, Congressman Hull contends that an unusual distinction should be bestowed on Sergt. York, for he already has the Congressional Medal of Honor Distinguished Service Cross, etc.

"The question has been raised on this bill that it is unprecedented and might constitute a bad precedent," Mr. Hull told the committee. "Mr. Chairman, this bill had to be, and was deliberately made unprecedented because it was undertaking to deal with an unprecedented individual achievement. This soldier, it would matter not what rank might be conferred upon him now will always be known in this country as Sergt. York. It was in that individual capacity and in that capacity as a non-commissioned officer that this achievement was gained by him. A mere ordinary increase of rank would not suffice. It should be some unusual action."

John McCormack in Louisville

No event in years is causing the widespread interest as is the appearance of John McCormack, the celebrated tenor, in Louisville on Friday, November 21st. McCormack is today the world's most popular singer, and he has never before appeared in Louisville or in this section of the country, people from all over the state of Kentucky will attend this event. The management is making a particular effort to take care of out of town mail orders, and assure out of town patrons that they will be taken care of in the best possible manner.

The opportunity to hear a singer like McCormack is a rare one, and those who take advantage of it will hear a wonderful concert. Inquiries for seats should be addressed to the Civic Music Series, Stewart Dry Goods Co., Louisville. The management advises everyone to send in their orders early, to assure good locations.

Palmer Tells How To Cut Living Prices

Describing efforts of the Department of Justice to drive down the cost of living, Attorney General Palmer speaking before a meeting of the fair price committee, mayors of cities and state officials of Pennsylvania at Washington, declared that if the people would increase their savings 10 percent the cost of living would fall 20 per cent in a brief period of time.
 Mr. Palmer attacked the "buy now" campaign, declaring that our job is to wait, both in our interest and in the interest of the nation and the world at large, that the demand may be lightened spectacle of the "dog chasing its tail" to wear their old clothes a little longer, to refuse to buy until production has caught up with the demand. This, he assured the officials, was one of the principal means of ending the tail around in a circle. Unless the people themselves take this step, the Attorney General said, the nation cannot expect to have anything but discontent and disorder.

BEND

Since the election, that passed off very quietly, everything is peaceful. There was the largest vote polled that has been in years. Look out for mud. It will be mud for a long time. The good old county of Madison, that boasts of its fine Blue Grass land, good schools and fine stock, doesn't take much interest in her public roads. Some of the pikes at present are in an awful condition. The recent tide is called the pumpkin tide. The river all day Sunday was running thick with pumpkins, which had come from the head of the river. Men and boys were busy catching them. A great deal of corn and fodder were swept away. The loss will be thousands of dollars. It is the opinion of a great many farmers, that seed corn for another year will be scarce as was in 1917. The continuous rains and warm weather are causing it to rot in the shock. A sudden freeze would destroy the greater part so it would not germinate. It would be a good idea to hold over some of the old corn for next year's seed.

 Will Hill bought 26 600-pound steers court day. M. B. Hill also purchased 75 800-pound steers the same day.
 Tobacco men have begun stripping their tobacco. Wheat is looking fine.
 J. D. Congleton sold to Dillard Hill his river farm, price not known.
 Rev. L. P. Edwards has bought a farm near Winchester. He will move soon.
 Jesse Dennis bought Oscar Dennis' undivided interest in the farm of the late Z. R. Dennis, deceased.

50 EGGS A DAY INSTEAD OF 12

"More Eggs" Tonic is a Godsend; before using it I was getting only 12 eggs a day and I am now getting 50," writes Mrs. Myrtle Lee of Boston, Ky.
 "More Eggs" Tonic has already been used by 400,000 chicken raisers and literally thousands of letters have been received telling of its marvelous results. Any poultry raiser can easily double his profits by doubling the egg production of his hens. "More Eggs" is a scientific tonic that revitalizes the flock and makes the hens lay all the time. "More Eggs" will double the production of eggs. Poultry raisers everywhere are making big profits by giving their hens "More Eggs." The results of a few cents' worth will amaze you.
 Send $1.00 to E. J. Reefer, the poultry expert, 2370 Reefer Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., and he will send you a season's supply of "More Eggs." A million dollar bank guarantee if you are not absolutely satisfied your dollar will be returned on request. So there is no risk. Send a dollar today. Profit by the experience of a man who has made a fortune out of poultry. Nov. 12-18

New Express Regulations

New express requirements go into effect on December 10th. Under the new regulations all shipments sent by express weighing over 25 pounds, must be packed on wood containers, or cartons of fibre-board, pulpboard, or corrugated strawboard—material of specified "test strengths." This means that after December 10th packages over the 25-pound limit will not be accepted for forwarding by the American Railway Express Company, handling the express business of the entire country as Agent of the Railroad Administration, if only paper wrapped. Nor will ordinary paper boxes, wrapped or unwrapped, be accepted as suitable protection for these heavier shipments. The regulations however, do not effect shipments under 25 pounds.

WOMAN SUFFERED 12 YEARS

Finally Made Well by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Emmitsburg, Md.—"I suffered for twelve or fifteen years, and was treated by a physician, but got little relief. I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, so I thought I would try it, and it did me more good than all the doctor's medicine. I am a farmer's wife and do my housework all the time, and I am better now than I have been for years. I am never without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house and have recommended it to several of my friends. You are perfectly welcome to publish my letter for the good it may do other women."—Mrs. ETTIE WARREN, Emmitsburg, Md.

Backache and nervousness are symptoms or nature's warnings, which indicate a functional disturbance or an unhealthy condition which often develops into a more serious ailment. Women in this condition should not continue to drag along without help, but profit by Mrs. Warren's experience, and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and for special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co., Lynn, Mass.

Social and Personal

The Boonesborough Chapter, D. A. R., held its November meeting on Monday afternoon at the handsome new residence of Mrs. Shelton M. Saufley, on West Main, Mrs. Saufley and Miss Bessie Dudley being joint hostesses for the occasion. The parlors were beautifully decorated with white and pink chrysanthemums and the soft glow of lights which fell upon rare pieces of ancestral mahogany and brasses, added to the cordial welcome of the two delightful hostesses, made the occasion a most enjoyable one.

There were some thirty members of the chapter present and a number of invited guests.

The program opened with the reading of a Psalm by the Chaplain, Mrs. C. D. Pattie, followed by the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. J. G. Bosley, after which impromptu reports were made by those who were present at the State Conference at Lexington. Great pleasure was expressed at the nomination of Mrs. C. D. Chenault, of Lexington for Vice President General from Kentucky.

Two new members were welcomed into the chapter, Miss Miller, one of whose ancestors was the founder of Richmond, and Mrs. Thos. Jackson Smith, who brought her transfer from the Cumberland Ford Chapter.

The Regent then introduced one of the most charming guests, Mrs. Arthur Yager, wife of the Governor of Porto Rico. Mrs. Yager, as the first lady of Porto Rico, has been a most graceful and brilliant representative of our country, dispensing in her official capacity the hospitality in the grand old Castilian palace at San Juan, which the position of her distinguished husband demands. Her remarks on this occasion were along the line of the progress and improvements that have taken place on the island during the regime of Governor Yager and their residence there of six years.

The literary programme for the afternoon was of much interest. Mrs. Charles Jett told of her summer automobile trip to New York and Boston. Miss Maude Gibson gave a paper on "Reconstruction in France and Belgium," and Mrs. Charles A. Keith a paper on "The Poetry of the War." Mrs. Keith's paper was of great interest and it is hoped it may be repeated at a future meeting.

The entire programme for Monday afternoon was also in celebration of the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice which was discussed both before adjournment and over the exquisite refreshments served during the social hour.

The chapter enters upon a new year which promises to be a prosperous one with only two changes in its corps of officers, Miss DeJarnette as Treasurer, and Mrs. Jennings Greenleaf as Historian.

The Big Clearance Sale which was inaugurated Nov. 1st and advertised to run for 10 days ending on Saturday, Nov. 8th, was a decided success, and hundreds of people took advantage of the many bargains we offered. However, so many of the country people told us Saturday that they had been unable to attend, and were coming to our store Monday morning expecting to purchase furniture which was advertised during the sale, that we have decided to continue this mammoth sale 10 more days.

MUCH INTEREST MANIFESTED IN OUR BOYS AND GIRLS CONTEST

The school boys and girls of this county, are certainly working hard in the contest which was started at the opening of the 10 days sale. The prizes, namely; the Minature Majestic Range, Dolly's Minature Favorite Range, a Boy's Bicycle, and a Velocipede, are all on display at our store, and the boys and girls are registering their names as contestants and are working hard for the coveted prizes. There is still time for more boys and girls to enter the contest, which ends at Christmas time. Come on and get in the contest—a fair chance for everyone, and the prizes will be awarded to the boys and girls sending to our store before Christmas the greatest amount of business.

The low prices we are offering during this sale, are based on only the staple articles—the best grades manufactured in this country. It's a mighty easy proposition to offer low prices on articles that are not standard, and are built at about one-half the expense of standard lines. For the benefit of those who have never visited our store, and seen for themselves the standard goods we carry in stock, we are publishing a list of the different grades we are offering, which are all included in this mammoth sale.

WHEAT PROSPECTS NOT GOOD, SAYS COHEN

The last crop report of the season 1919 issued by the State Agricultural Department gives the final estimates on yield of corn and tobacco neither of which crops are entirely housed as yet. This crop season has been very unfavorable, with the extreme drouth throughout the summer months and the continued rains throughout the fall months and much complaint is voiced of corn damage in the shock.

The prospects for the wheat crop of 1920 in this state are not good. The anticipated acreage is exceptionally small, the same showing at 57 per cent, which, compared with the 114 per cent acreage sown in 1918 shows the crop has been cut 50 per cent. The condition of wheat at this time is given at 72 percent. Only about 50 per cent of the acreage planned was reported sown up to November 1.

The acreage of Rye that is being sown is also lower than last year, the same being 88 percent, with condition showing at 96 percent.

Barley is sown in but few communities, and the very few reports coming to this office show the acreage at 92 percent with condition, 96 percent.

Final estimates on the corn crop shows an average yield of 23 3-10 bushel per acre, which is 2 bushels per acre less than last year. This would indicate a production of something over 78,000,000 bushels for the year.

The estimate on Burley tobacco in final yield is 716 pounds per acre, while dark tobacco is estimated at $35 pounds per acre. This is lighter in both districts than last year.

A light crop of potatoes is also reported. The yield as a state average is given at 68 bushels per acre of the second crop of Irish potatoes, and 69 bushels per acre of sweet potatoes.

Pastures have greatly improved, and show a condition of 94 percent, which is an exceptional condition for this time of the year. All classes of livestock are in good condition, and the number on hand as compared with an average year show as follows:

Horses, number on hand 91 percent, condition 92 percent.
Cattle, number on hand 88 percent, condition 92 percent.
Hogs, number on hand 87 percent, condition 93 percent.
Sheep, number on hand 82 percent, condition 94 percent.

Taken as a whole, the average yields for this year have been cut down, which is attributed to the unseasonable crop year. Fall work is greatly delayed on account of continued rains, and a great deal of complaint comes in regard to the corn and fodder being damaged in the shock. Taking into consideration the extreme drouth during the growing season, and excessive rains during the maturing season all crops are cut both as to quantity and quality.

HURTS TOBACCO

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 11.—Delay in ratification of the peace treaty is costing the tobacco growers of Kentucky millions of dollars.

The ratification of the treaty is not a national issue alone, but a local issue.

This is the declaration of Herschel A. Long, business manager of the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, and a returned soldier, who declares that the delay in the peace treaty, due to the maneuvering of Republican Senators, has cost the tobacco growers of Christian county alone more than a million dollars.

Mr. Long sets this forth in an article in the Kentuckian, in which he says:

"At this writing, Mr. Morrow, Republican candidate for Governor of the State of Kentucky, has refused to give his views in regard to the ratification of the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations. Gov. Black has called upon Mr. Morrow time after time to give his views, the press of the State has repeatedly requested that Mr. Morrow express himself—but the cry has been unheeded—and the people of the State are in ignorance as to Mr. Morrow's attitude on these important questions. Mr. Morrow has tried to crawl behind the excuse that the ratification of the Peace Treaty and the League of Nations are national questions, and therefore have nothing to do with State affairs.

"These questions are national questions, but they are also State questions, because each State is an integral part of the nation and further they are Local Questions.

"Kentucky is a great tobacco raising State. Christian county is a great tobacco county—raising as much if not more black tobacco than any other county in the world. The bulk of this tobacco is for export. Before the war a large part of this tobacco was bought for German and Austrian firms.

If in doubt as to your case write to Medical Advisor, Swift Specific Co., Dept. 54, Atlanta, Ga.

"The writer has just returned from a sojourn of several months in the interior of Germany, and during that time he visited parts of Austria. Tobacco is one of the scarcest articles in these countries. The people crave tobacco and are willing to pay any price for it. They have done without it for a period of four years, and now they want it at any cost. But foreign trade with these countries cannot be firmly established until our Senate ratifies the peace treaty.

"I have talked to a number of tobacco men, and they have all said the same thing—that if the peace treaty had been ratified a month ago or if it were ratified today—that the price of this year's crop of tobacco would be $5.00.

"And yet Mr. Morrow states that this is a national question and has nothing to do with State or local affairs.

"It appears to us a highly important local issue. The dilatory methods, and the political maneuverings of the Republican Senators in regard to the ratification of the peace treaty have cost the farmers of Christian county over a million dollars on tobacco alone.

"Christian county and the remainder of the Black Patch differ materially with Mr. Morrow in regard to this not being a local issue. They would like very much to know his sentiments in the matter."
